

Unit 6, Week 1

Weekly Materials

- Between the Lions alphabet chart
- building materials (e.g., sticks, newspaper, building blocks, pieces of wood, pieces of concrete, flat rocks, wooden logs, plexiglass pieces, pieces of metal with rounded edges, etc.)
- camera
- cardboard pieces (flat; a variety of sizes)
- cardboard boxes and tubes
- cardboard or toy house
- chalk
- chart paper
- clay
- clipboard
- clips or clothespins
- connecting cubes
- construction paper
- craft sticks
- crayons
- drinking straws (or straw)
- foam craft balls
- glue
- hair dryer (handled by adult only)
- journals (one per child)
- large shape cards (circle, square, triangle, rectangle)
- large posterboard
- letter cards (one for each letter of alphabet)

Unit 6, Week 1 (CONTINUED)

- magnetic letters (or small single letter cards): “b,” “c,” “d,” “e,” “f,” “g,” “h,” “i,” “l,” “m,” “n,” “o,” “p,” “s,” “u,” and “w”
- markers
- name cards
- name chart
- newspaper
- number cards 1–10
- photocopies of illustrations from Building a House
- picture of your home
- pictures or books of real pigs in their environment
- pictures of houses and buildings of different sizes and shapes
- pictures of houses in various stages of construction
- pictures of objects, some that begin with the /b/ sound (include action words)
- pipe cleaners
- plastic or toy bat
- samples straw, twigs, and brick
- scissors
- screwdriver
- sentence chart
- sentence strips
- small bag
- sticky notes
- storyboard and storyboard figures for The Three Little Pigs
- string
- tape (masking or duct)
- toolbox with real or toy tools (hammer, nails, measuring tape, pliers, screwdriver, saw)
- toothpicks
- wood blocks (approx. 4 × 2) and three short screws (for each child)

- word cards build, house

Books

Houses and Homes by Ann Morris

This nonfiction book introduces children to the many materials used to build around the world and to many things that make a house a home.

The Three Little Pigs by Paul Galdone

The classic story of three pigs who build houses out of straw, sticks, and bricks and the wolf who tries to blow the houses down.

Building a House by Byron Barton

Simple words and pictures take readers along a step-by-step journey as a house is built.

Videos

“Huff and Puff” (BTL show) (0:07:00)

“Play With Words: ‘butterfly’” (BTL clip) (0:00:42)

“Words Beginning with ‘b’” (BTL clip) (0:00:16)

Interactive Game

“Dub Cubs” (BTL game)

Playlist

Unit 6, Week 1 Media Assets (BTL and PEEP)

URL: <http://resourcesforearlylearning.org/children/>