

Unit 7, Week 4

Weekly Materials

- “A Seed is Planted” chart from Week 1
- baking pans or cardboard box lids
- beans
- Between the Lions alphabet chart (or similar)
- box
- buckets
- camera
- chalk
- chart paper
- clipboard
- container of compacted soil
- crayons
- dark paper or cloth
- digging tools
- drawing materials
- flowerpot or window box
- fresh vegetables, such a small bunch of carrots or radishes or a potato or turnip, with mud and roots still visible on them
- glue
- large glass container with a screen cover or clear plastic jar and lid with holes
- letter card: “Ww”
- magnifying lenses
- markers
- name cards

- name chart
- nonstandard measuring tools (connecting cubes, paper clips, string, etc.)
- pail
- paper
- pencil
- pictures representing the four seasons (if possible, the same scene including a tree that shows changes over the seasons)
- “Plants All Around” chart
- plastic spoons
- sandpaper
- scissors
- sheet or blanket
- small pictures of objects that begin with /w/
- small shovels
- soil (dry and moist)
- spray bottles
- squares of paper
- string
- tape
- trays
- trowels
- water
- word card: worms
- worm food (leaves and grass clippings)
- worms (dig them up, purchase them at a bait shop or order them from a biological supply catalogue)
- “Ww” stamps
- “Ww” stickers

Books

Wonderful Worms by Linda Glaser

Learn about a small animal that lives underground and helps plants meet their needs—worms, the underground gardeners.

Vegetable Garden by Douglas Florian

Follow a family through the seasons as they plant, care for, and harvest a vegetable garden.

Videos

“Wonderful Worms” (BTL show) (0:06:08)

“Worm Watches” (BTL clip) (0:01:12)

“Words Beginning with ‘w’” (BTL clip) (0:00:19)

“Experimenting with Seeds” (PEEP live-action clip) (0:01:28)

Interactive Game

“Flower Power” (PEEP game)

Playlist

Unit 7, Week 4 Media Assets (BTL and PEEP)

URL: <http://resourcesforearlylearning.org/children/>